17. "You can never be overdressed or undereducated."
18. "The only difference between a saint and a sinner is that every saint has a past, and every sinner has a future."
19. "I have nothing to declare except my genius."
20. "The truth is rarely pure and never simple. Life is never what it seems, and people are never quite what they appear to be."
21. "There is no such thing as a moral or an immoral book. Books are well written or badly written. That is all."
22. "The only way to get rid of a temptation is to yield to it. Resist it, and your soul grows stronger. Indulge it, and your soul grows weak."
23. "The world is too much with us. Late and soon, / Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers. Little we see in Nature that is ours; / We have given our hearts away, a sordid boon."

24. "The only thing that one really knows about human nature is that it changes. Change is the only constant."
25. "The highest ideal of criticism is to make us appreciate what we enjoy without taking it too seriously."
26. "The only way to avoid criticism is to do nothing, say nothing, and be nothing."
27. "The true mystery of the world is the visible, not the invisible."
28. "The world is a place of great beauty and wonder, and it is an amazing privilege to be alive."
