The Divine Comedy

The Divine Comedy is a narrative poem that tells the story of Dante's journey through Hell, Purgatory, and Paradise. The poem is divided into three parts: the Inferno, the Purgatorio, and the Paradiso.

The Inferno is the first part of the Divine Comedy. It tells the story of Dante's journey through Hell. Dante is guided through Hell by the Roman poet Virgil. Together, they witness the punishments that are inflicted on sinners.

The Purgatorio is the second part of the Divine Comedy. It tells the story of Dante's journey through Purgatory. Dante is guided through Purgatory by the Roman poet Statius. Together, they witness the punishments that are inflicted on sinners who are trying to atone for their sins.

The Paradiso is the third part of the Divine Comedy. It tells the story of Dante's journey through Paradise. Dante is guided through Paradise by the theologian Beatrice. Together, they witness the rewards that are given to the righteous.
